SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT (540-604)

September 3

Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, “Gregorian” chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory’s legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory’s administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the Church’s material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promotor of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the “Gregorian Canon” (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated “the Great,” a fitting epitaph.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

The deadline for bulletin submissions is Friday at noon, 9 days before the announcement appears in the bulletin. No material will be accepted past the deadline or by phone. Send preferably via e-mail for now to kay@stmatts.org or type your submission and bring it to the office. All announcements are subject to Fr. Dennis' approval and should be directed to his attention. Thank you for your cooperation.

NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind, as we seek to attain humility, is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.

—François Fénelon, archbishop of Cambrai

On behalf of Golf San Antonio, the San Antonio Children's Foundation and everyone associated with the Valero Texas Open, thank you for your support of the 2010 tournament.

The response from the community continues to be positive, and has been a critical factor in our ability to raise $8 million in 2010 for the second consecutive year.

Your recent commitment of $500 will directly support Seton Home. Your ongoing support allows the important work of these fine organizations to continue. Thank you for helping us to deliver on that promise!

Warm Regards,

Tony Piazzi
